- Toxicologic clinical pathology

The ASVCP is a leader in promoting clinical and diagnostic laboratory standards and providing guidance on regulatory and quality assurance issues. Important initiatives that strengthen our industry's future include support of training programs, externship opportunities, and travel and research awards.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in veterinary or comparative clinical pathology, from veterinary students to laboratory technologists, clinical veterinarians, veterinary specialists, and research scientists. Specialty groups within the ASVCP include a Veterinary Laboratory Professionals Group that focuses on professional development and issues facing laboratory scientists and a Toxicological Pathology Group that concentrates on matters related to pharmaceutical industry drug discovery and development.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the ASVCP is held in late fall, in conjunction with the annual meeting of the American College of Veterinary Pathologists (ACVP). A substantially discounted registration fee is offered to ASVCP members.

The ASVCP meeting features:

- Keynote speakers and in-depth education symposia
- Scientific sessions and platform presentations
- In-depth educational seminars
- Pre-meeting workshops
- Mystery hematology and cytology slide sessions
- Clinical biochemistry case review session
- Roundtable discussions of laboratory issues
- Trainee reception and Young Investigator Award
- Reports on regulatory issues affecting the field
- Annual business meeting

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- ▶ Print and online access to all volumes of Veterinary Clinical Pathology, a leading international journal published by the ASVCP. Veterinary Clinical Pathology is widely indexed and also serves as the official journal of the European Society of Veterinary Clinical Pathology. Quarterly issues regularly feature:
 - Original high quality research and clinical investigations
 - State-of-the-art reviews
 - Special reports on current issues
 - "What is your diagnosis?" challenges
 - Case reports and brief communications
 - Laboratory Medicine: Yesterday - Today - Tomorrow
 - Book reviews
- ▶ Access to and participation in the ASVCP listserv. This forum provides members with instant access to experts and peers in veterinary clinical pathology for discussion of current cases, scientific topics, laboratory problems, diagnostic principles, etc.
- ▶ Participation in the hematology/cytology slide series and NEW clinical chemistry case sessions. These glass slides and case data summaries are a very popular member benefit. A great resource for teaching and studying!
- ▶ The ASVCP quarterly newsletter keeps you up to date on current society activities.
